

Furlough and Holiday Closures for Santa Clara City Library

Santa Clara City Library (Central Park Library and Mission Library) will be closed December 25 – 30, 2011 and January 1 – 2, 2012 due to citywide furloughs and holidays. Central Park Library will be open 10 am to 5 pm on Saturday 12/24 and Saturday 12/31.

During the closed dates, bookdrops will be open to accept returns. No items will be due on closed dates.

Students needing to do research during the closed dates are encouraged to use the numerous free online databases available on the library's website library.santaclaraca.gov. The databases, such as World Book Online Reference Center, can be accessed 24/7 with a Santa Clara City Library card from any computer with an internet connection.

Santa Clara City Library cards are free to anyone living in North America with a valid government issued photo ID.

For further questions about library programs and services for youth, please call the Youth Services Department at 408-615-2916.